4) Sinners and saints.

St. Paul reminds us that we have all "sinned and fallen short" (Romans 3:23), but are called to live as Saints (Phil 3:14). St. Augustine of the 4th century reminds us that the Church herself is made up of both sinners (those in need of forgiveness and healing) and saints (those who have conformed their will to God's). Sermon 38 on the New Testament.^{iv}

5) Our family has spanned the centuries and the globe.

The Church has existed continually since the time of the Apostles, and has an unbroken span of 2000 years. The earliest writings regarding the organization of the Church go back to the New Testament and 1st Century Rome. Multiple sources from within and outside the Catholic Church describe the Church in every century.

6) With God's grace, we started hospitals to care for the sick.

10) We developed the scientific method...

"Roger Bacon, a Franciscan who taught at Oxford, was admired for his work in mathematics and optics, and is considered to be a forerunner of modern scientific method." "Like Roger Bacon, Saint Albert [the Great] was careful to note the importance of direct observation in the acquisition of knowledge about the physical world. In De Mineralibus, he explained that the aim of natural science was 'not simply to accept the statements of others, that is, what is narrated by people, but to investigate the causes that are at work in nature for themselves.'" ^{ix}

11) ...and the laws of evidence.

See above and also history of Bishop Grosseteste of Lincoln who in the 13th Century sought to perfect scientific experimentation based on the observation of repeatable, material phenomenon.^x

Today the Catholic Church operates nearly 200 colleges and universities in the United States including Notre Dame, Georgetown, Fordham etc."^{xi}

13) We defend the dignity of all human life, and uphold marriage and family.

"A man and a woman united in marriage, together with their children, form a family. This institution is prior to any recognition by public authority, which has an obligation to recognize it. It should be considered the normal reference point by which the different forms of family relationship are to be evaluated...In creating man and woman, God instituted the human family and endowed it with its fundamental constitution. Its members are persons equal in dignity. For the common good of its members and of society, the family necessarily has manifold responsibilities, rights, and duties."^{xiii}

14) Cities were named after our revered saints, who navigated a sacred path before us.

E.g. St. Louis MO, St. Paul MI, St. Augustine, FL, San Antonio TX, San Diego, CA, San Francisco, CA.

15) Guided by the Holy Spirit, we compiled the Bible [I.E. THE NEW TESTAMENT].

The Catholic Church compiled and canonized the New Testament of 27 books at the Council of Hippo in AD 393. It approved the Old Testament (Hebrew Scriptures) at the Council of Laodicea in 363.^{xiv}

16) We are transformed by sacred scripture and sacred Tradition, which have consistently guided us for 2,000 years.

Scripture, as compiled in the Bible and the tradition, as passed on by Apostles, serves as the central sources for the Deposit of Faith protected and promoted by the Magisterium.^{xv}

Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist, Anointing of the Sick, Penance, Marriage and Holy Orders.

19) Jesus, Himself, laid the foundation for our faith when He said to Peter, the first pope, "You are rock, upon this rock I will build My Church."^{xvii} For over 2,000 years, we have had an unbroken line of shepherds guiding the Catholic Church with love and truth, in a confused and hurting world.

The unbroken lineage of Pope's traces all the way back to St. Peter. Today, Pope Francis is the 266th Bishop of Rome.^{xviii}

20) And in this world filled with chaos, hardship and pain, it's comforting to know that some things remain consistent, true, and strong, our Catholic faith, and the eternal love that God has for all creation.

"For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

- Roman 8:38

"The household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of truth."

- 1 Tim 3:15
